

WELCOME!

The 14th Washington International Piano Artists Competition
August 4-7, 2016
The George Washington University
Washington, DC, USA
Sponsored by WIPAC

Washington International Piano Arts Council (WIPAC) welcomes all qualified amateur pianists around the world to compete for honors, recognition, cash awards, and the chance to showcase their talents to a wider audience. WIPAC has hosted its international piano competition for outstanding amateur piano artists annually since 2003 in cooperation with The George Washington University Music Department (GWU). Participants come away exhilarated and inspired by an experience that fosters artistic growth through performance, interaction with other competitors, and discussions and master classes with a jury of professional pianists.

Competitors and their guests will find many sights to see and opportunities to relax between practice sessions in Washington, DC. Enjoy the various attractions at Smithsonian Museums, the Harbor Restaurants, fashionable Georgetown, The White House, and the natural beauty of the United States Capital City in the summer. The Commonwealth of Virginia is just across from the Potomac River, where one can visit Mount Vernon, the home of George Washington, First President of the United States of America. A visit to nearby Alexandria offers dinner boat cruises along the beautiful Potomac River day and night.

The competition and special events has often been held at fabulous venues in the District of Columbia, such as The Arts Club of Washington, which was the Monroe White House in the early 19th Century.

The George Washington University Music Department is located on the (basement level) of Phillips Hall near "Foggy Bottom METRO" south of DuPont Circle and west of the White House, more specifically, just off H and 22nd Streets NW, Washington, DC. Preliminary rounds and other special events will take place in room B-120.
